(A homemade ode to Ye Graduates.)

Commencement time is coming in Loudoun's week grade schools and high schools and five of Middleburg's future citizens are among the record number of graduates. Of these Leola Allison, Petena Belt, Louise Ferguson & Alfred Stewart will end their school days at Aldie High School. As a gracious gesture to these graduates, the baccalaureate sermon will be preached the Middleburg Baptist Church hy Rev Chas. W. Caulkins of the Leesburg Baptist Church the evening of May 28 at 8:00 o'clock. The remainder of the commencement program will be carried out in the Aldie high school auditorium. Don Gartrell, Jr. is one of the seven graduates at Upperville where he maj-ored in atheletics as well as the Three R's and is proudly wearing his letter while he waits another week for his diploma. As this throng of youngsters comes forth from our county schools, some graduated cum laude and some oh lawdy, but many of them far better educated than the generation before them, we wonder how much of good or ill is in store

Sponsored by the local U.D.C. memorial services for the heroes of the Lost Cause will be held at 11:00 o'clock the morning of May 30 in the Methodist Church at which time the three Ministers of the Baptist, Episcopal and Methodist churches each pay tribute to the South's noble dead. It is hoped that the school children will be able to have a part in this service and that many flow ers will be sent to add beauty to the

WASHINGTON TO OPEN ENTRIES 'TILL MONDAY

F. Moran McConihe. Secretary of the Washington Horse Show, has advised The Chronicle that entries will be held open to a final dead line on noon Monday, May 29. This time extension, for the Show with dates set for June 2-4 at the Meadowbrook grounds will enable many exhibitors to enter coming from Devon.

In hand at this time are substantial early entries from the country's leading stables in the Alving Unter myers, Mrs. George P. Greenhalgh's "Springsbury," Mrs. John Hay Whit-ney's "Llangollen," Mrs. George ney's "Llangollen," Mrs. George Watts Hill's "Quail Roost," U. S. Randle's "Bannockburn" and Miss Deborah Rood, of Wilmington. All of these stables have well known

Whitney 'Chasers In Winning Week Rose Tree Field SWEEPS SHOW

Greentree Stable Leads Home Field Of Nine In $2,000 Handicap Special At Belmont

Mrs. Payne Whitney's Greentree Stable chasers, saddled by Vincent Powers, topped off a week's uninter-rupted victories at Belmont Park when the 7-year-old gelding Sailor Beware captured the $2,000 International Steeplechase Handicap, the season's first cross country special, on Wednesday, May 17, leading home Gwladys Whitney's Gay Charles by five lengths. The latter's stablemate Brant beat out Sumatra, Greentree's other entry, for third.

Nine paraded to the post in this two mile brush feature with Thomas Hitchcock's Eran de Perse, Brook-meade Stable's National Anthem, Harold Talbott's Ship Executive, Kenneth Gilpin's Buck Langhorne Ambrose Clark's Paper Maker completing the field, all of whom finished the course. Jockey Little, who scored twice previously with One Round and once with Tarbrush, had the ride on Sailor Beware and the son of St. James—Lady Be Good, making his first start this year, was so much the best of the field that, after getting off to an early lead, he was never headed and finished with speed in reserve.

Though steadied along under re straint while fencing nicely, Sailor Beware never let anyone get close than two lengths during the first turn of the course. Paper Maker, who jumped poorly, was the first to offer a challenge, but he was easily away, tiring badly after several bobbles at his fences. Then Jockey Roberts made a move with Buck Langhorne and had no better Continued on Page Five

Good Timber Race Marks Saturday's Competition As Martin Entry Defeats Winner

By John H. Zane

The gods of racing continued to mile on the ancient Media Rose Tree course as approximately 17,000 wended their ways through the turnstiles, despite the muggy and threatening weather, to see J. W. Y. Martin's Comonhome win a remarkably well run timber event in the Gloucester Fox Hunters' Plate on Saturday, and J. G. Leiper, Jr.'s Forsaken take the feature on the preceding Wednesday. Mr. F. H. Powers gave Forsaken a clever ride to win the Taylor Plate and turn back Mr. A. C. Randolph, Jr., on Bobe, and Mr. Henry Frost, on Monkslore.

When Mr. Watters banged home Mr. Martin's son of Aspinwall—Clara Martin in his usual masterful fashion, he accounted for his sixth winning ride this season and his fifth win over timber in Hunt Cup races. Comonhome bested Wednesday's winner Forsaken, who was pulled up, and Bobe, Red Ned and Clifton's Fairy trailed him home.

In the two brush features, the R. G. Woolfe trained Telemark, who runs in the colors of R. V. N. Gamwon the Rose Tree Plate Saturday and Walter M. Jeffords' Warspite, with Jockey Clements up, galloped in The Corinthian Plate.

The outstanding horse in the Phila delphia area this season is Mrs. Brooks Bromley's Shot Gun, ably handled by Mr. Robert C. Hamilton, who has enjoyed the almost unprecedented record, of four victories in eleven days, each time weighted with heavier burdens. He made his first

Quality Horses Outclassed By Kingvièure And Holystone In Atlantic City Competition

It was Kingvulture again in "The Olympia of America" in the Atlantic City Horse Show, which came to a close last Saturday night when Judges: Henry Lawrence Bell of Bayside, L. I., William Brainard, of Greenwich, Conn., and Turner Wilt-shire, of Middleburg awarded the Championship tricolor. Miss Patricia du Pont's big 17 hand hunter. fresh from his Wilmington Championship win, took five blues in seven events in which he was entered and accounted for significant seconds and thirds behind Holystone in the Ladies Qualified and Ladies Hunters, when the Reserve of the show, Holystone was tied at the top. Crispin Oglebay's Man O'War gelding in accounting for the Reserve accounted for the Thoroughbred Lightweight on Thursday and was contestant Kingvulture, when he placed second in the Hunters Any Weight and third in The Corinthian behind the Champion.

Miss du Pont's gelding flawless performances in all events, but the size of Kingvulture was the pointing issue when it came to the Ladies Hunters.

Though the Annual Indoor Auditorium exhibition had less than its usual number of horses, the class of the horses present made it one of he best in its history.

Getting underway on Tuesday, May 16, Mrs. George P. Greenhalgh's Springsbury Farm came cognition straightway with the good young mare Sallyport getting the first of her three blues in the Limit Hunters, besting the Alvin Unter-

Survey Of Maryland Racing Season Finds Challenger II Leads Money Winning Sires

A resume of the Maryland turf season shows that ten Maryland sires and wenty-eight Virginia sires had winners at Havre de Grace. Bowie and Pimlico during the past three months. Leading sire of them all, of course, is the Maryland horse *Challenger II, sire of Challedon who garnered $53,710 in one fell swoop when he won the rich Preakness Stake on May 13. In addition, *Challenger II had five other winners of seven races on the Old Line Tracks. They were Chalmac, Ugin, Match Point, Challamore and Aethel-Tracks.

Bud Lerner, another Marylander whom Ray Bryson purchased at the Elder Sale, is next in line, represented by six winners in Thanksgiving, winner of the Philadelphia 'Cap at Havre de Grace; Rissa, Miss Fix It, Nansemond, Burner and the 2-year-old Hardy Miss, earning altogether $11,375.

Next comes Grand Time, young Virginia sire, whose leading son Rough

Time accounted for two stakes and $8.845 in first monies, in the Rowe Memorial Handicap at Bowie, on March 30, and the Jennings Handicap at Pimlico, on May 8.

The Virginia-Court Manor scion *Sun Briar is fourth with three of his progeny having accounted for $6,625 at Havre de Grace alone. These were Sun Egret, who captured the Harford Handicap on April 15; Sun Plume and Sun Antioch. The late *Teddy had more winners, however, six of his having accounted for eight races and a total of $5,200. They were Teddy campaigners, following the two circuits which lead to Washington, Patic, Invermark, Ready Teddy, Kenty, Greeny and Slattern.

HAMPTON GIVES DOUBLE FOR QUAIL ROOST STABLES

Mrs. George Watts Hill's Quail Roost Farm's Lucky Buck, having hit his stride the previous week in winning the Tidewater Show, swept through the Hampton Horse last Friday and Saturday, May 19 and 20, to win Championship honors in the 11th Annual exhibition. Buck's triumph made it two in a row at Hampton for Mrs. Hill, as it Inky, the little black mare of Quail Roost Farm who gained the triumph in 1938 The seven-year-old chestnut, who gained honors on Virginia's 1938 circuit but was blanketed with the consistent Inky brilliance, pinch-hitted nobly, when Mrs. Hill's mare was forced to the side-lines through schooling injuries.

Knickerbocker Best DELAWARE STAKES MOTT'S YAMMER Metropolitan Field

Third Victory For Joseph Widen er's 3-year-old Son Of *Teddy Provides Withers Candidate

Joseph E. Widener's Knickerbock er, promising young son of the late *Teddy and Warrior Lass, went into the Metrolopitan Handicap at Bel-mont last Saturday a 40 to 1 shot and the only 3-year-old in the field against seven of the country's top veterans, responded with an amazing performance and outgamed such contenders as Heelfly, Jacola, He Did and Fighting Fox to capture the 46th running of this famous spring event, his first important triumph to date. In three starts so far, the colt has been unbeaten, winning his maiden outing as a 2-year-old in November at Pimlico and scoring once again at Belmont about a week ago. Though he only carried 100 pounds, an impost nine pounds lighter than any other horse in the race Knickerbocker finished the mile in the excellent time of 1:37 1-5 and the manner of his doing so earned him no little consideration as a candidate for tomorrow's Withers, to say nothing of the $7,500 accrued from the winner's share of the added purse.

The story of the week's fastest 2year-old turns out to be another "Ugly Duckling" tale, the result of a performance turned in by Mrs. Elmer Trueman's colt Wood Chopper who captured the Beacon Hill Purse at Suffolk Downs on May 17 and equalled the track record for the distance, stepping the four & a half furlongs in This was the youngster's first start and he ran it like a veteran, more than repaying his owner's faith in him, for apparently it was she who liked him when no one else did. The son of the late Woodcraft and Highland Belle, bred at the Audley Farm of B. B. Jones, was so lightly considered in the Audley consignment because of his meager size and appearance that not a bid was received on him at Saratoga. Mrs. Trueman, however, wanted him and so he was offered to her as a gift to save shipping him back to Virginia. Now, trained by her husband, little Wood Chopper has, in his only outing, justified Mrs. Trueman's belief in

Other juvenile winners this past week by Virginia sires were Claude Feltner's Wale Signal, a Prince of Wales filly who broke her maiden at Charles Town on May 18; Mrs. K. Ramsey's Boy Baby, son of Brandon who likewise graduated at Churchill Downs on May 19, after numerous attempts since his first outing in February; and E. R. Pike's Duniin filly Seplin who came through with her first effort at Charles Town on May 22.

In addition to Wale Signal's triumph, three other Prince of Wales progeny accounted for victories. On May 17 Brookmeade Stable's 3-yearold-filly Personage scored her maiden win at Suffolk Downs, while at Char-les Town on May 19, S. B. Berry's Princess Lady, of the same age, was among those occupying the winners' circle and the following day there H. M. Simpson's 7-year-old gelding Continued on Page Seven

HURDLE WINNER

Second Toronto Outing Success ful For Four-Year-Old 'Chaser At Woodbine Park Tuesday

Thomas T. Mott's 4-year-old chaser Yammer, whose previous attempts over hurdles have been unsuccessful this year, made his second outing at Toronto a triumphant one when he showed the way to a likely field of five other contenders at the Ontario capital's Woodbine Park Tuesday, May 23.

Riden by Jockey Thorndyke, Yammer completed the distance of about one mile and five eights, over ten hurdles. in 3:10 4-5 while Careless Knight was second and Winon third. Others finishing in order were Bobsworth, Amhurst and Tab Him.

Yammer also- started in Satur day's hurdle race at Woodbine, over the same distance, along with stablemate Prattler and that day both of the Mott horses were placed. This event was won by Kine Kong, with Irish Envoy second and Rural Shower third.

Horses & Horsemen Who Make the News

Alexander Mackay Smith, owner of Farnley Farm, near White Post, in the great breeding and hunting country of Northern Virginia, while exploiting the merit of the Cleveland Bay tribe of English coach horses, is also contributing liberally to the worth of the Dartmoor pony breed. Believing that the blood of the Cleveland Bay infused with the warm stream of the thoroughbred, Smith has installed the imported stallion Cleveland Farnley as premier of his establishment with the idea of furnishing an outcross for the production of heavy weight hunters. Farnley's master is impressed, too, the value of the Dartmoors as ideal mounts for the use of children. and imported Hay Nonny now heads the Clarke county breeding establishment in production of these midgets of the equine kingdom of Northern Virginia. At the Warrenton show Mrs. Mackay Smith scored in the mare and foal class with Criban Surry and her last born, a suckling, while other products of Farnley were placed in the child's lead, yearling and stallion classes. The Mackay Smith children, Hetty, Matthew and Alexander, Jr., rode in fine fashion, and with the get of Hay Nonny as mounts carried on the glories of Northern Virginia's swanky pony show.

Hunting Notes:

AN ARTICLE ON FOXHUNTING

by W. Plunket Stewart, M. F. H.

Editor's Note: This year Mr. William D. Polk asked W. Plunket Stewart, M. F. H. of Mr. Stewart's Cheshire Hounds for some words on Foxhunting at the annual Pageant held on the estate of Mr. Pierre du Pont, Longwood, given for the benefit of the American Legion. The President of the Masters of Foxhounds Association very kindly consented to let The Chronicle publish the article that conveys to Foxhunter and layman alike a splendid picture of what hunting means to America. We take a great deal of pleasure in giving our readers this account by so noted an authority written on April 24th, 1939 for the Longwood Pageant.

It seems but natural and fitting that the program of this very beautiful Pageant should contain a few words about fox hunting, for, indeed, the noble sport has flourished and been one of the leading diversions for many years in the vicinity of Longwood and Kennett Square, Pennsylvania. No one who has ever read the Story of Kennett by Bayard Taylor can forget not only the try is approximately 12 by 12 to 15 heauty of the story itself, but the description of the fox hunt.

Fox hunting has long existed throughout the United States, but more es pecially in the east, and it is interesting to note that even as far back as the 18th Century organized hunting took place under the auspices of the Gloucester Fox Hunting Club of New Jersey, the history of which has quite recently been published. This Club was formed by gentlemen living in Philadelphia and Gloucester Counties, New Jersey, in 1766, and the territory hunted was the Jersey and Pennsylvania Counties near Philadelphia. The hey-day of the Gloucester Club's prosperity came during 1775, when 16 couples of Hounds, we are told, showed splendid sport, and an elaborate uniform was adopted. However the War of the Revolution dispersed most of the members of the Club to the more serious work of hunting British soldiery. Out of this sporting organization was formed the famous First Troop of Philadelphia City Cavalry, nearly all of whom served in the memorable campaign of 1776-77. After the war the Club was revived and carried on until 1818, when its existence ceased. Great sport was enjoyed dur ing this post-war period and many outstanding runs were recorded. Quite the most remarkable person, which this period of the Gloucester Club has given us was "Old Jonas Cattell", who for more than 20 years figured as its guide and whipper-in. No matter how circuitous and how distant the chase, Jonas always afoot was on hand at every emergency before half of the riders made their appearance. He was past master in the art of hunting the fox, and read the country as an open book, but part from that knowledge, which of course aided him in following, the pace he maintained and the endurance he showed was astonishing. The Club members believed him equal to any test, and evidently with much reason. On one occasion a wager was made that Jonas could deliver a letter to a town 40 miles distant in one day, and return the next with an answer, which he did, despite heavy roads. Even though this fine old organization ceased to exist, the sporting spirit it had established and nurtured grew, and from then until now fox hunting has grown in leaps and bounds not only in Pennsylvania, Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey and New England, but throughout the United States.

It soon became apparent that if a group of individuals in each vicinity, whether it be farmer or city folk, who wanted to hunt, should keep a pack of Hounds, there would be so much confusion that no sport would be possible. Therefore as additional hunt clubs from time to time have been organized, they have kept clear of territory already hunted. In 1907 in order to have a parent association, which would be the custodian of the boundaries of each territory, and in order that there might be some medium through which hunting organizations could apply for territory and submit complaints, the Masters of Foxhounds Association was formed. Eligible were all Masters of recognized fox hunting clubs in the United States and Canada, who Would each year elect a President, Secretary and Treasurer, and Executive Committee, consisting of five of their members. The members of the Executive Committee to serve for three years without power of reelection, when other members would serve under the same conditions. This provision was made because it was thought that the Association could best serve its members by requiring that all Masters serve their term, and thereby avoid what might be looked upon as autocratic power in the hands of a few men permanently. While the Association meets but once a year, the Executive Committee has been called upon to give a great deal of consideration and thought to many problems, which come up from time to time for their attention. To-day the number of organized hunt clubs in the United States is 113, and the membership of the Masters of Foxhounds Association is 264. In order to make definite the authority of this Association when discipline is needed, an agreement exists between the Masters of Foxhounds Association, the Horse Shows Association of America and the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association, by which in the event of any member of an organization being disciplined, he is automatically punished by the other two. This therefore means that an offender so disciplined will have the privilege denied him of fox hunting with any recognized hunt in America, showing horses at any recognized Horse Show in America, or racing at any recognized Race Meet in America. It is interesting to note that this power has hardly ever been exercised.

It must be remembered also that fox hunting has now become a very vital economic factor in community life. A few years ago the Washington Times compiled some very interesting data on the benefits which Virginia was re-There were found to be 143 landowners in Louceiving from fox hunting. down and Fauquier Counties with a total area of more than 10,000 acres, which was assessed at more than $2,800,000. "Kindest regards, sincerely yours," LAWRENCE C. PHIPPS, JR.,

Arapahoe Hunt, Denver, Col., May 4.

fox hunting is the most productive industry in the two counties; that land values in Loudoun and Fauquier Counties had been greatly increased by fox hunting activities. Furthermore it went on to show that the sport gives employment to thousands and many thousands. The survey indicated that the amount paid annually by hunting people in the two counties mentioned reached the total of $633,940. This sum of course did not include what properly may be termed dependent occupations—that is occupations which are created by virtue of the fact that hunting people employ men and women who in turn employ others.

It is not necessary to go further into details, to prove that what has been shown to exist in Virginia is similar to conditions in our own community of Chester and Delaware Counties, Pennsylvania, as well as in other states

The above pertains to the material benefits which are derived from being in the open air and following a pack of Hounds. Sportsmen who have excelled in each branch of sport have written much of the advantages of the particular branch of sport to which they were attached, but it seems to be generally accepted by all that the words of Whyte Melville are true and accurate when he says:

"I have lived my life; I am nearly through I have played the game all around; But I freely admit that most of my fun I owe to horse and hounds " myers' Illuminator. Hunter's Choice, Springsbury's bay gelding, winner of many Championships on the Virginia circuit in the past two struck his stride to win the Working Hunters to climax the first day's program. Morton W. Smith's Guardsman was second in this event, while Springsbury's Protest brought further laurel's to his owner with his third. Sallyport had another blue to her credit on Wednesday, when she won the Green Hunters in the afternoon; in front of Illuminator. The Springsbury home-bred took a good second that night in the Open Hunters Lightweight, when Sallyport was placed back of Claredda Farm's Woodfellow, yet still trounced the Reserve winner Holystone who was third.

Just as Bartender, of the Maytop Stable, had won the Tuesday Touch and Out, the talented performer took the first phaze of the Marl-borough-Blenheim $1,000 Stake Open Jumping on Wednesday and had a stablemate Golden Brew back ing him up with a second. This order was reversed for Mayton in the sec ond phaze of the $1,000 stake.

Following his win in the $1,000 Jumper Stake, on Saturday, May Top's Bartender gained the tricolor for the Jumper's Division. His work through the show was outstanding. Fort Myer's Show Team swept through Friday's Touch and Out to a clean sweep, with the good Rusty leading the way. Rusty won the four day Touch and Out Award, with Bartender second. Reserve in the Jumping Championship was taken by Question, enabling his owner to have double in Reserves for the Show. Mr. Oglebay's Holystone and Question accounted for these two awards in their respective divisions.

The Alvin Untermyers, of Green wich, Conn., had their day on Fri-day, when the Judges fancied their Illuminator and Velveteen to place them in order in the Horse Suitable to Become Hunters (4 and up). In the very next class, Illuminator turned the trick in the Hunter Hacks when Springsbury's Protest was second and the former Springsbury Dress Rehearsal was ridden to third Brilliancy and uniformity of per was the keynote to Ladies' Onalified Hunter competition on Friday, when Miss Muriel Cleland rode Holystone to a faultless round. The Garden Champion never went better to take the blue from Claredda's Woodfellow, with Miss Charlotte Ives Montgomery up. Miss du Pont's Kingvulture was was third, considered too sizeable for the perfect lady's mount. However the son of Dick Turpin-Miss Leap Year did not wait long to be stood on top again in the Thoroughbred Hunters (Middle and Heavyweight). Here he was the best over Sunwood Farm's Bond Street and John Hay Whitney's veteran Two Leggins, who was to cause the Judges to make a considerable reversal of their opinion, following their decisions in the Ladies' Qualified Hunters the previous night, when he wasn't in the ribbons.

Two Leggins with his owner Mrs Whitney riding turned in a stand-out performance in the Corinthian the closing event of the Friday evening program, after he had taken part in the hunt team which placed third. Leggins was lined up in front Farm's c in the Corinthian, for the Endicott Memorial Challenge Trophy. The longest deliberation ensued, when The the Judges finally placed him second to Kingvulture, and above Holystone who was third.

When the Friday and third phaze of the Marlborough-Blenheim Jumper Stake came up, spectators, who had increased in goodly proportions as the days went on, looked for another Maytop one-two, with Morton Smith riding. This was not to be the case however. While the crowd was kept on edge, with the worst performance among the 17 who jumped, being 6 faults, two had ess rounds. Joe Meara rode N. H. Wagner Jr's., Sergeant Joe to a two point circuit on the jump-off to beat Glendhu Farm's Glendhu with four. The best the consistent Golden Brew could do for Maytop was third.

Miss Margaret Cotter, of Washington, provided plenty of thrills in th Triple Bar on Saturday, The competition was crisp, before her grand old campaigner Rocksie took the laurels in a jump-off. Morton Smith came out first with his reliable Bartender in the jump-off and once more had but a single fault. Miss Cotter came out to ride for a clean performance to win. Four times Rocksie measured the wide-spread bars and then the announcement of her clean performance and win, which was met with the most enthusiastic applause of the whole show.

As Atlantic City classes ran their course to completion, Miss du Pont put her Kngvulture through another perfectly paced performance and it was the 4th, blue for the Wilmington horse, and the last before the Hunter Stake which completed his triumphs. In the Hunters Any Weight, Holystone was second and Untermyers' young horse, Illuminator was third, besting Claredda's Woodfellow.

In the $1,000 Hunter Stake, for the Dennis Trophy, taken by Kingvul-ture again Two Leggins was stood on top in the line-up. There the gallant grey of Mrs Whitney's stood, for so long that it seemed evident that the Judges were in consternaton as to the placing of the hunters behind him. In the end Two Leggins, despite his fine round was put second, though there behind him stood by his present owner Capt. Henri Springsbury's Sallyport, the only Luebberman.

Springsbury's Sallyport, the only one with a clean performance, and May To A. S. ridden by Mrs. Jacobs Wetherall.

cess. The only amateur in the race Mr. Ray Woolfe was on Eran de Perse and kept the French bred gelding well back during the early running and was never a serious contender. Both Gay Charles and whose stablemate Red Rain won this same event last year, were also restrained back off the pace for the first mile. Gay Charles, with Jockey Slate in the saddle, improved his position under urging when but three fences from home and was closing ground at the final fence when he swerved and hung in the stretch run, as Sailor Beware pulled away from him, but Gay Charles managed to outlast Brant who was coming up on the inside.

Greentree's winning streak wa broken the following day, Thursday, May 18, when the Louis Stoddard, May 18, when the Louis Jr., owned and trained Deserter, a 25 to one shot, was the victor over the same two mile course while the Whitney entries Homburg and Airly Beacon both came to grief in the running and a new one of Thomas Hitchcock's in the 4-year-old imported gelding Constructor was second in this his first outing. Groton Stable's Canlo was third while the one other starter, Brookmeade's Traffic Light, lost his rider between Traffic Light, with Jockey King in the saddle, was on top, having made the pace from the beginning, when he met his mishap going to the lower end of the field. Here the son of Clock Tower bolted while rounding the turn after jumping the fifth fence and ran out at the sixth, almost going down himself and unseating King. Airly Beacon had lost his rider W. Collins in making a bad landing over the fourth. Here Little made his move on Homburg and the other half of the Greentree hope to Traffic Light, so that at the sixth he was well able to take over the command. Homburg was going strongly in the lead when he came down heavily over the seventh.

Hereafter it was nip and tuck be tween Deserter and Constructor, but the Stoddard horse, ably ridden by Jockey McKenna, was the best in the final strides, getting to the wire by a nose while Canio came in some twelve lengths further back.

Jockey Harry Little, who knocked unconscious from his fall with Homburg, was removed in an ambulance to the Mary Immaculate Hospital in Jamaica where he regained consciousness and where X-rays disclosed a dislocated shoulder and minor head injuries.

In Friday's 'chase, of about two nd a quarter miles. Amateur Ray Woolfe, who tightened the girth on Mrs. Manton B. Metcalf. Jr's By the Sword, rode that son of *Light Brigade—Nobility to victory over Brandywine , Stable's Drinthorne while W. B. Ruthrauff's Clovisse, also trained by Mr. Woolfe, was third. Others in the race, finishing n order, were J. Brooks Parker's Court Time, Mrs J. C. Clark's Itsaboy, George H. Bostwick's Pompeius and D. B. Barrow's Quakerstreet.

Court Time, who was third in Radnor's National Hunt Cup the receding week, went to the post favorite and turned in a disappointing performance. By the Sword dised speed from the beginning and Mr. Woolfe went to the front with him early in the race, keeping him there under mild restraint as eded little effort to withstand the of Quakerstreet which came in the first half. Jockey Magee on Drinthorne made his move in the final half mile, coming up on outside, then took his mount up after the final fence and brought him up on the inside to be beaten by a length, while Clovisse came some thirty lengths away, having lost considerable ground in making a bad landing over the sixth fence

E. B. Schley's Dolly's Love, making his first appearance since the Foxcatcher Meet last September, turned in a surprise performance to capture the two mile Good Plenty Steeplechase on Saturday. The Greentree colors were 2nd., this time toted by Sumatra, while Thomas Hitchcock's Yemasee was third. Jockey Penrod was fined failing to ride the Hitchcock chaser out in the stretch run. Mr. Ray Woolfe on Alvin Untermyer's Wam-baw took fourth from C. Mahlon Mahlon Kline's Our Sailor while Mr. John Bosley 3rd on Snobby Scamp and Gwlady's Whitney's Rideaway also ran.

Dolly's Love jumped well all the way as he was restrained by Jockey Leonard back off the pace of Yemasee. Jockey Collins followed along close with Sumatra and did not make his move until reaching the lower end of the field. Here Dolly's Love also moved up on Yemasee who had held the command till at the center then. The son of Bruleur—Dolly to its meetings. Dimples nailed the pacemaker entering the front field then drew away to win easily by six lengths while Sumatra came fast to haul Yemasee by a half length margin at the finish.

A photo finish decided Tuesday's steeplechase, a maiden claiming event over the short course and it was Log Cabin Stud's He Goes the merest fraction over the Bliss Flaccus color bearer Greek Idol. Mrs. E. D. Jacobs' Atophan came in some thirty lengths back to head Louis Stoddard, Jr.'s Broom Topper for third.

Nine went to the post and Mont-pelier's Slievereigh, the favorite disappointed his backers with a poor showing. Atophan along with Mrs. J. H. Whitney's Tom's Boy made the early running. Tom's Boy made bad landing over the seventh fence and was thereafter out of it. Greek Idol took over the command at upper end of the field as Atophan tired and He Goes did not get on even terms with him till after the final fence and in the drive home the two were so close that the judges had to rely on the camera.

J. G. Leiper, Jr.'s Forsaken, 7-yearold mare by Actuary—Hasty Chick, won the three and a half mile Bay ard Taylor Plate, a maiden post and rail test that featured Rose Tree's opening day card on Wednesday.

Mr. F. H. Powers gave Forsaken clever ride, rating her third all the way until the next to the last of the twenty-two small fences had been ac complished, yet never lengths off the pace.

This of course meant that the large mid-week crowd of almost 5,000 witnessed a very exciting race, although only three accepted the issue, and the spectators were fortunate in the other three events, all closely run despite the small fields. Rose Tree of all the hunt meets, leads a charm ed life: anything can go in the way of fields, but the crowds, due largely to the club's long and well publicized history and its spectator facilities till at the center of the course-

In the Taylor Plate the Virginia entry, Christopher M. Greer's Monksthe hard luck horse in the Wednesday Radnor timber race—rid-den by his trainer, Mr. Henry W. Frost, Jr., and Joseph Richards, Jr.'s Bobe, who came close to winning a Point-to-Point last winter at Redland Hunt's fixture, when his rider missed the course when only two lengths from the finish, made the running. Bobe was then known as The Boob, and last Wednesday, Mr. A. C. Randolph, Jr. was making his initial steeplechasing start in Phila delphia, and alternated in the lead with Monkslore. Neither apparently took kindly to the sharp turns, but they kept hammering at the pace as distance increased, yet with the sinister Forsaken, always well up. The chart will show that for the first twenty fences. Bobe was on top at ten and Monkslore in the lead over the others.

The closest finish of the season took place in the mile and a flat test for the Glen Riddle Plate. which also was a three horse affair. Last year's winner, Mrs. C. V. Whitney's Clotho, with Mr. John Harrison up, was odds-on, as was other winner except in the farmers race, but just managed to get his nose in front of Mrs. Brooks Bromley's Shot Up at the wire.

Clotho was off on top, but Mr. R. P. Hamilton, who has won five this spring, took Shot Up into the lead at half mile mark, got the rail at each subsequent turn and hugged it so that Mr. Harrison had to bide his time, and it was not until the head of the long stretch that Clotho, now ten-year-old, drew on even terms.

Mr. Harrison, on the outside, had the advantage at Rose Tree of shortest line home, and he made the most of it, gaining a length by the bottom of the hill, but Shot Up came on in the uphill run, and all but nipped Clotho at the wire. The lathut ter's time of 2:43 was 3-5 seconds better than his winning effort last year when he carried five pounds

CLIFTON'S BEAU CHAMPION VIRGINIA TO HAVE NEW IN SQUADRON A SHOW

(Editors' Note: We regret exceed ingly circumstances which have pre vented carrying the Squadron A. Spring Horse Show story and summary before this issue.)

Mrs. Harry Frank, Jr., of Long Acre Farm, Warrenville, N. J., commenced her spring campaigning with the Squadron A. Spring Horse, held on April 27-28-29 in the Armory in New York and enjoyed a convincing and veritable clean sweep of important laurels as Clifton's Beau the tricolor award. With over a hundred and seventy horses, the Squadron Show, from the outset, was the best in the long history of early spring exhibitions in the New York area. Clifton's Beau triumphed only after stand out performances, which placed him above ranking hunter performers of the country. Judge: Charles J. Barrie, of Teaneck. N. J. awarded the Reserve to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Untermyer, of Green wich, Conn, whose promising young Illuminator received this recogni-

In going to the top, Clifton's Beau won the Open Lightweight, over Hexameter, also of the Untermyer stable and Glendhu Farm's Glenara; the Working Hunters Lightweight, placing ahead of Mrs. Norman K. Toerge's well known Camp, with Glenara tied third; the Model Light with weight, over Camp, and the May Top veteran Lord Britain; the Ladies Hunter, ahead of Miss Patricia Mc-Collum's Prince Tuilleries and fin-ally the coveted Hunter's Stake, ally the coveted Hunter's Stake, which event spoke well of the class of horses in the show, with Illuminator second, Morton W. Smith's Guardsman third, the great mare Stepaside of J. V. Bouvier III's fourth, Lord Britain fifth and Glenara sixth. The performances were startlingly close in this class startlingly close in this class.

Illuminator was consistent. Considered, following his splendid work at the Wilmington outing this month, as one of the most talented younger horses coming up in some time. This four year old won the Lightweight Hunters, (not to jump)

HORSE MONTHLY JUNE

The Virginia Breeder, a magazine designed to stimulate and publicize the Virginia horse and livestock, including hogs, sheep, and cattle, will make its appearance about the first of June. The policy of this magazine designed on the lines of other breeding publications, will be to promote the interest in better breeding of farm animals, beef and dairy cattle, as well as the thoroughbred horse.

Hubert B. Phipps, Editor and Publisher of the Fauquier Demo-crat, is Editor and Publisher of the new monthly. Associated with Mr. Phipps are C. V. B. Cushman, of Upperville, Lloyd Tabb, of Middleburg and R. T. Corbell, well known newspaperman, formerly of the Loudoun Times Mirror, as Managing Editor.

Smith's Guardsman (winner of the Knock-Down-and-Out and Working Hunters and Middle-and-Heavyweight, over Stepaside.)

The Jumper Division Championship was taken by Archie Dean's Salmo, who placed second to the May Top Stable's Bartender in the $500 Jumper Stake, when the sensational Untermyer Cinelli went unplaced. Reserve Jumper honors went to Gone Away Farm's Thunder Boy.

The Equitation classes were well contested with awards going to Miss Mary Pool in the Junior A. H. S. A. Member's Event, and Miss Poll also

FORT MYER HORSE SHOW SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

In keeping with the policy established several years ago, Fort Myer will hold the annual horse show for the benefit of the Army Relief Society, next Saturday and Sunday, May 27 and 28. All the proceeds from this show will be devoted to the Army Relief Society.

The Fort Myer Army Relief Horse Show is held each year in the Fort Myer Gardens, a naturally beautiful amphitheatre west of Memorial Bridge and just opposite the entrance to Arlington National Cemetary, It is the only outdoor show put on by the soldiers, but in case of rain it will be held in the riding hall. So, come rain or shine, the show will go on as per schedule.

The two day show will be divided into three parts. Saturday afternoon and Sunday afternoon being devoted to regular classes, and Sunday morning to a show for the enlisted men of the Regular Army and the Marine church. With her head "Bloody but

The Lions' Club, meeting in regular session at the Colonial Inn Monday evening, disposed of the gastronimical business of the evening before appointing Lion Simpson to help in the Young Peoples' work sponsored by the Methodist Church and to provide cars for an outing for the young people at some future date. A soft ball team, managed by Lion Hendricks also is under the aegis of the Lions whose good work in the community is ample evidence of the value of the organization.

"What's bred in the bone, will out in the flesh." so Jock, small grand-son of Louis Leith, was just running true to form the other day when he took a 'cross country from under the watchful eye of his granddad and held a line across several lots before he was called in. Jock got tired waiting while Mr Leith talked with racing field. a mechanic at the Middleburg Motors garage and set out to see how the going in the next lot was. Soon he was missed and everybody in hearing set out to hunt for him For all his two years, Jock was making time and was irked considerably to have the run end abruptly before he "found" a thing.

The Middleburg Volunteer Fireman, ever mindful that a substantial set-up calls for an equally substantial outlay, are making plans for the Carnival of the Century and to that end named this committee; Stanley E Wilson, R. L. Gordon, David Lee and S. F. Chappelle. Staged on the school ground, the carnival will open July 28 and run through August 5. The Smokeaters have answered a score or more calls since last carnival time and are proving themselves a corps of efficient fire fighters. Now if one good turn deserves another, the full cooperation of the the community is expected in this effort to privide the neighborhood with better and better fire protection.

UNITED HUNTS DONATES CUP FOR BELMONT 'CHASE

As a prelude to their annual Summer meeting at Roslyn, L. I., June 10, the United Hunts Racing Assn., has donated a trophy for a steeplechase race to be known as the United Hunts and to be run at Belmont Park Memorial Day. Announcement was made by secretary Lewis E. Waring after conditions for race had been drawn up by the National Steeplechase and Hunt Associ-

The race will be for horses have started in a Recognized Hunt meet in 1938 or this year and will be at two and a half miles with $1200 added. It is designed to provide an opportunity for owners of hunts horses to run their jumpers since two of the Hunts Meetings scheduled for the Spring season near New York have been called off.

There has already been a response ly to start are Ange Pitou, winner of the Greenwich Cup last year and owned by Emile Pfizer. Other entries are Tioga, Little Cottage II. Telemark, Sailor's Knot and By The Sword, all well known in the hunt-

Meantime entries are coming for the six race program of the United Hunts with the prospect of the largest fields that meeting has had in several years. The Bowman Steeplechase Handicap which will feature the meeting now promises to bring the best jumpers ever to have Heights Ave., north of Old Court Rd., competed for the prize.

LARGEST SHOW OPENS SIX DAYS WITH 233 CLASSES

Devon's Annual Horse Show and Country Fair opened on Wednesday, May 24th, and will continue through May 30th. Exhibitors who had horses in the ring at Atlantic City had but four days to make the move from the New Jersey coast to the Devon ring.

233 classes will be handled during the Devon seven days, when the tops of all the divisions will go through Mrs. William C. Cox, of their paces. Cohasset, Mass., is judging the pony, hackney and harness classes, with Albert Hargreaves, of Surrey, England; Charles W. Green of Sedalia, Mo., is judging the saddle horses, while Murray P. Fleming, of Toronto and W. Brock Fuller, of Milwaukee are doing the Hunters. Mrs. Daniel C. Sands, of Middleburg and Welsh Strawbridge of Pa., are judging the breeding classes.

ATLANTIC CITY SHOW

The Atlantic City Horse Show officials did a good job this year. They had a well balanced show. The entries were not numerous, but the quality was perfectly splendid. The entire five day program was run off with efficiency and Manager Ned King did his usual excellent job backed up by a most efficient secretary in Robert Leeds. A horse show needs more than mere numbers to make it successful. There are shows and shows, but a really good show must have that atmosphere of perfection in the quality of its exhibits to make it an outstanding success.

There can be class after class with fifty and sixty entries, but if horses jump sloppily, if appointments are not beautifully turned out, if exhibitors are not on their mettle and dressed for the occasion, the Show becomes second rate. Officials at Atlantic City prepared an auditorium that was a mas-As one present was heard to remark to Ned King, it was hard to tell on entering the Hall whether it was a flower show or a horse show that This was true, flowers were banked across the entrance in a most decorative fashion and lent an air of the superlative to an already decorative affair.

Kingvulture and Holystone seemed to steal the Show in the hunter classes with almost uncanny jumping ability. They are two great performers. The Show was interesting from the hunter angle because of the presence of these two famous Show horses and the battle that other competitors had to equal It was Kingvulture and Holystone against the field and the field was not numerous but filled with champion quality. It was interesting to see Henry Bell, Turner Wiltshire and William Brainard line up Holystone, Kingvulture, Two Leggins, Protest and Woodfellow in the Corinthian Class after throwing out such champions as Hi-Bey, The Bear, Prince Charming and Bond Street with perfect performances to their credit. It was a job to test the skill of the most discerning.

What was so impressive in the Atlantic City Show was the personalities who were everywhere. Miss Judy King with Paddy O'Connor doing some of the driving, that famous character of the show ring Mrs. Loula Long Combs who has been in the Show game longer than any other and drives so that you notice her at once, Mrs. Whitney, a box office attraction in this show, was riding her famous greys, Miss Mary Fisher in the Saddle Classes was doing a fine bit of work.

So it went, throughout the five days, with classes well scattered between jumpers, hunters, saddle and hackneys. Atlantic City is not a horsy place, unless you count the efforts of the beach riders, but the atmosphere of the Atlantic City Show had all the niceties of the game. It was a businesslike outfit that sat in the official box. Adrian van Sinderen was there as President of the American Horse Shows Association, Whitney Stone, Secretary of the National was there, Miss Deborah Rood, who has been making such an outstanding success of her own Wilmington Show, and many others who have helped to build up the Horse Show business from a few recognized shows to a great group of 185 recognized member exhibitions and a hundred more Non-Member, but licensed events.

More than ever after watching this indoor show, with thoroughbreds jumping in a ring, is one impressed with the strides being made in developing a greatly improved type of show horse. Twenty years ago, thoroughbred horses were not performing in hunter classes. They were racing on the tracks, but they were not considered suitable material for Shows. The qual -ity of the horses at Atlantic City Show was striking proof of the developnt of thoroughbreds in the Show game. They are matchless examples of what can be done by breeding, training and care.

foreleg, but when the scratches were announced before the first event, Mr. Leiper immediately dispatched his van to Chestnut Hill for the gelding, and Big Don paraded in the last, with an off knee resembling a y balloon. He ran accordingly. The last year's winner of the mile flat test, the Hunting Hill Plate, Mrs. Bromley's Shot Gun, turned in his third victory in a week to repeat and in so doing the gelded son *Teddy clipped 3-5 seconds off his last year's time, and carried ten pounds more.

Shot Gun, with Mr. Hamilton up had quite a race, trailing Mr. Nor-Cleland and Mrs. Marion Genzie's Monks Shadow H MacKenzie's Monks for most of the way until the uphilistretch, where Mr. Hamilton staged one of his Coq Bruyere hand ridden finishes and just got up to best Monks Shadow by half a length. The rest of the field of six were never contenders after the quarter. Tho-mas McKelvey's fractious Turkey Run, off a bad last, made up lots of ground, but tired and Jockey Manague just whipped him for the show half a length in front of Mr. Harrison and Mrs. Walter M. Jeffords' chestnut looking Hugh grand Wynne.

Trainer Morris H. Dixon sent out a pair of fit ones for the two mile steeplechase, the Corinthian Plate, in Mr. Jeffords' Wednesday Radnor Winner Warspite and William L. Van Alen's Campfire Embers. Three others faced the starter.

Jockey R. Jones followed instructions and took the Van Alen gelding out to set the pace, and when he failed to kill off B. F. Mechling's Justa Bud, Jockey Clements went to his rescue at the fifth of the twelve jumps with Warspite. The Mars gelding, a likely looking stake prospect, did a good and effortless job, coasted home with a three length margin over Campfire Embers, which had a like distance on William D. McCullough's Cathedral, trainer J. Wallace up.

The announced time of 4:48 4-5 for the short course is questionable as Justa Bud won last year in 3:44 and all of the steeplecsases "about 2 miles" at Rose Tree in recent years have been run in under minutes-and Warspite wasn't loafing unnecessarily.

Saturday, May 20

Comonhome, J. W. Y. Martin's 8ear-old gelded son of Aspinwall-Clara Martin, came out on top in the timber race feature on the closing day of Rose Tree, to repeat Mrs. Martin's victory last year with Dartforth in the Gloucester Fox Hunters Plate, the three and a half mile timber race labelled in the program, "over a fair hunting country", but in reality a glorified "stream-lined" hurdle course

Six in the Gloucester was the afternoon's largest field, yet it developed into a fine race, and two of the others were hair raisers.

Probably the majority of the rowd, 2,000 bona fide hunt-meet followers, and 10,000 laymen attracted by Dr. George Orton's double barrelled publicity, failed to appreciate the excellence of the Gloucester, for unlike the finishes in all the Cup races to the annointed it was a pleasure to see Mr. Watters' strategy bear fruit.

Deflation was scratched, a great disappointment to those who had seen him battle Coq Bruyere the previous Saturday at Radnor.

The others declining the issue were Dorinda, first in the Skippack at White Marsh, Monkslore, third on Wednesday, John Broom, now at Belmont for a brush try, and Big Don victim of his third place effort in the Wednesday three horse flat race.

ran Justa Bud to the ground, and apprentice with a future, set the early lengths while regaining it.

pace with the surprising Bobe. Mr. Jack Hamilton, smashing the fences as he ran, was second with E. B. Morris, Jr.'s big Bullard's Promise, winner of the pairs race at Happy Hill, while Mr. Watters lay off, a canny third.

This order was maintained to the 6th, with Bullard's Promise mowing them down, and the other 17 hand contender, Bobe, taking his jumps beautifully to hold the lead, but at the 7th, the favorite, Arthur I. Meigs' Red Ned, the Harston winner, showed in front under Mr. Dick Hamilton's urging, with Bobe second, and Comonhome, third.

By the 9th Red Ned was back in the van, with Bobe again on top, but here Mr. Watters had moved up a notch and Bullard's Promise was This order prevailed at the third. 12th, with the Morris gelding beginning to tire from his lumbering efforts, and by the 16th it was Comonhome on top, by three, Bobe and the favorite

From then on Mr. Watters was never headed. Mr. Powers pulled up the Wednesday winner Forsaken at the 17th, Bullard's Promise was through, and Dr. Lewis M. Allen's Clifton's Fairy, first in the Happy Hollow at Radnor, was still dogging Bobe managed to cut down the leader's lead to two lengths at the nineteenth, and Mr. Hamilton went this month, Comonhome had a good into a drive, but over the 22nd and six lengths on Bobe at the wire, but up the short diagonal stretch it was Comonhome by six, Bobe by six, and Red Ned by twenty over Clifton's Fairy, which Mr. Harrison had never gotten into contention.

While only three of the ten entrants went in the two and a half mile steeplechase for the Rose Tree Plate, it was a grand race for twelve of the sixteen jumps, with R. V. N. Gambrill's Telemark and William D McCullough's Cathedral alternating in the lead, Mr. Randolph having lost a stirrup iron from Dr. J. Fred Adams Mr. A. C. Randolph, Jr., a timber Jr.'s Rolling Steel at the first, and had had their innings in the pprentice with a future, set the early lengths while regaining it.

But Cathedral made a bad landing while leading over the twelfth, and tossed his trainer-rider J. Wallace on his head. Wallace was assisted from the course and suffered no than a shaking up. Meanwhile Rol-ling Steel had tired from his effort of getting back on the pace, and Jockey L. Smith had no difficulty in getting Telemark the victory by thirty lengths.

Mr. R. P. Hamilton came a nasty cropper in the three horse finale, the Stayer's High Weight Handicap, at a mile and a half on the flat, which marked the first running for the Charles A. Dohan Challenge Cup.

Mrs. C. V. Whitney's Clotho, first on Wednesday at this distance, and also in this event last year, went to the post with Mrs. Brooks Bromley's entry of Shot Up and Cheriton. Mr. Cleland, riding under orders, took Cheriton on top as soon as he could, but by the half mile mark Mr. Hamilton had forged to the front with Shot Up, and at the three quarters post had two lengths on Clotho, while Mr. Cleland, his task completed, was letting Cheriton coast.

But Shot Up, on the straightaway past the judges stand, did not favor a turn into the dumbbell shaped course, struggled with his rider, and crashed through the fence, and fell. Mr. Hamilton, too, was promptly on his feet-a mira uious escape.

If Mr. Harrison, up on Clotho, thought the race was in the bag, he was in for a jolt, for Mr. Cleland shook up Cheriton and was on top around the last turn. Mr. Harrison then went to work, had Clotho in front at the bottom of the stretch, and when Cheriton came again, hand rode Clotho to a scant half half length victory, in 2:42 1-5, both than in his last year's victory. or in his Wednesday win, in both of which the 10-year-old on of Germans carried less weight than today.

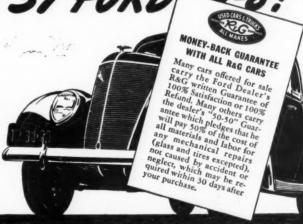

Mrs. Bromley and Mr. Hamilton

STEPASIDE WINS LAURELS AT VASSAR HORSE SHOW

By Louise McKinney

The Vassar Horse Show on May 20 was the most successful ever. Although this show has grown by leaps and bounds during the last few years, it has never lost its pleasant air of informality and friendliness It is almost completely an amateur show, and this combined with the performances of some of the mos outstanding hunters of the east made it a grand day for everyone The ringside and hill overlooking the outside course of natural hunt ing fences were jammed with spectators. There were many brilliant per formances in the hunter classes and the judges George Timmins and Mortimer Fuller did an excellent job of the difficult task, as in some classes more than forty horses were entered.

Stepaside, J. V. Bouvier's Reserve Champion at the National last fall, moved steadily through the day to wards the Hunter Championship She was beautifully ridden in her classes by Miss Elizabeth Hyland and was never out of the ribbons winning the Middle and Heavyweights, Hunter Hacks, Work-ing and Ladies', and placing second the Corinthian and Models. She is an outstanding performer, with a grand way of moving, never varying in pace or take off. Reserve Championship went to Mr. and Mrs. John Melville's great new colt, Lap Won-der in one of the first outings. This a very popular victory, as this local horse, young and untried, went on from his blues in the Novice and Green classes to win the Corinthian and then Reserve in the show.

Ballela, Mrs. Gardner Prime's grand chestnut mare placed steadily in the ribbons, as did Croom. the Bontecou's good working hunter who went ahead to win the Lightweights with a steady and workmanlike performance. Miss Wilhelmine Kirby won the Model class with Grand Dan, her beautiful four year old, out seeing the sights at his first

The horsemanship classes were many and all well filled, due to the nearness of Bennett and Foxhollow schools as well as Vassar. However, Miss Peggy Klipstein from Greenwich walked off with both the advanced horsemanship and jumping classes, showing some excellent riding. She not only won in horsemanship classes but also rode her own horses to victory in two different divisions; placing second in the jumper sweepstake with Red Rock and second in the saddle horse sweepstake with Yankee Doodle. She is one of those rare people showing and winning with both saddle horses and jumpers. The A. S. P. C. A horsemanship class over jumps was won by Miss Shirley Williams from the Bennett School

State Bureau of Insurance, is the proud owner of the young thoroughbred mare, Jane Kemp, daughter of Wrack and Jane Straith, and her foal of 1938, a bay filly, by The Scout, son of the great sire imp. Sir Gallahad 3rd. The Scout a former Virginia stallion and stud companion of Pompey and Petee Wrack in the Ellerslie Stud of the Hancocks, is now under lease in Ireland from his breeder and owner, William Woodward, chairman of the Jockey Club and one of America's most suc-cessful producers of the thoroughbred breeding and racing stock, also an able exponent of the Clydesdale breed of drafters. Mated this season to Pompey, Jane Kemp appears to be with foal to that outstanding son of the brilliant Sun Briar and Cleopatra, daughter of Corcyra.

Edward T. Janney, manager Westover, the late Richard Crane's historic estate in Charles City County, hails from Great Barrington, Mass., where he served as racing secretary of the Fair Association. Domiciled on the splendid estate with its many broad and fertile acres skirting the banks of the lower James River, is the Westover Arabian Stud, headed by the imported sire Mulhalhil, son of Moanaki and Sabile. The handsome grey stallion, well mannered and tractable, is the favorite mount of manager Janney in his supervision of work on the big estate.

ATLANTA HUNTERS ALL FROM GOVERNMENT POSTS

When Capt. Gilman C. Mudgett of the U. S. Cavalry, Maxwell Field. Alabama, walked into the Atlanta Horse Show ring, last May 5 to judge the Hunters and Jumpers he found no privately owned horses in this division competing. In consequence the hunter and jumper laurels were won by United States Army horses, and Blue Point, a 16-hand grey mare, was consistent through the three days to finally win the Championship Jumping Class the last day, May 7th.

Over 140 horses were listed in the program, which devoted most events to gaited trotting and combination horses. Especially noteworthy class was found here, and the competition was the best throughout.

James D. Henry, Secretary, was kind enough to mark a program for The Chronicle and we herewith carry the Hunter and Jumper awards. 62 Classes were run off on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, utilzing two evening programs.

650 ENTRIES TO COMPETE AT DEEP RUN HORSE SHOW

With more than 650 entries received, the 19th Annual Deep Run Horse Show to be held on the club grounds Richmond this Saturday Sunday, May 27th and 28th, will set a new high record in both quantity and quality of horses. This year's show is being held with the cooperation of the Junior League of Richmond.

well filled and entries have been re-ceived from Keswick, Charlottesville, Orange, Warrenton, Norfolk, Virginia Beach, Fredericksburg, Washington and Statesville, N. C., as well as a large number of local horses. C. V. Henkel, Jr.'s Red Sails, reserve open jumper champion of last year's show, is again entered, but will have a bitter fight for his laurels this year against such champions as Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Bruce's Ace of Spades and Silver King, Mr. and Mrs. W. Haggin Perry's Santa Claus, George Benoit's! newly acquired Sport Marvel and Hobo, sensational jumper, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Butz of Kes wick.

Further, it would appear that Mr. Benoit had aspirations in regard to both hunter and jumper championships with Sport Marvel, for he has entered that veteran in eight hunter events and five open jumper class

The hunter division will represent a parade of champions topped by Miss Betty Couzen's Repulsion, hunter champion of last year's show, Bobby E, owned by Howard Y. Haffener of Charlottesville, Mrs. George Watts Hill's Lucky Buck, hunter champion of the recent Hampton Show and Bo-Bend, owned by Mr. and Mrs. W. Haggin Perry of Keswick, champion of the Orange schooling show. The various saddle classes will be well represented by a number of good entries and should draw an enthusiastic hand from the gallery. The pony and children's classes, which will feature the Saturday morning's show, are ex pected to attract an unusually large Saturday morning's classes will get underway promptly at 9:30 P. with the afternoon session scheduled for 1:30 P. M. Saturday night's program will start at 8:00 P. M. and Sunday's concluding performance will start at 1:30 P. M. The Deep Run Hunt Club is located on Broad Street Road, just west of Richmond, and is easily reached by motor.

The two day, Annual Tidewater Horse Show, Member of the A. H. S. A., was held last Friday and Saturday, May 13 and 14, on the "Caro lanne Farms," near Norfolk. Va., and Dr. Edgar W. Powell, of Bryn Mawr, Pa., and Richard M. Carver Darien, Conn., awarded the of Championship tricolor to Mrs. Geo rge Watts Hill. whose Lucky Buck was the winning performer. Reserve went to Miss Antoinette Darden's consistent Dun-War.

With unusual attendance and sixty horses listed, including gaited and addle, the Show got away to a fine start on Friday, when the Model was tied on Mrs. Lester T. Hundt's Todmaster, just placing ahead of the well known Repulsion owned Miss Betty Couzens. The Champion-ship Jumper laurels were won by Hobo, owned by Howard H. Butz of Keswick. Hobo is a consistent lepper and won with little effort. Irving B. Kline's Kildare got the Reserve.

Lucky Buck, a stablemate of the popular Inky (who has suffered injuries this season), from the Quail Roost Farm of the George V Hils, of Durham, S. C., gained Watts the tricolor in first winning the Work ing Hunters over an outside course, with another stablemate Big Storm placing second. Lucky Buck then took a second in the Hunters under Saddle, when Betty Couzens' Repulsion went to the blue; and won the Hunter Sweepstakes ahead of F. M. Thraves' Kipling and Mrs. Hundt's Todmaster and The Princess Anne Hunt Trophy Corinthian. Mrs. Hill's Balkonian, a youngster, won the Novice Hunters. The Reserve took the Ladies' Hunters, besting the veteran Lee's Birthday and won other consistent seconds and thirds.

The Rose Tree Fox Hunting Club's annual two day spring race meeting, which took place Wednesday, May 17th, and Saturday, May 20th, on the club grounds near Media, brought Hunt Racing in the Philadelphia area to a most successful close. Many scratches made the adelphia area to a most successful close. Many scratches made the fields small both days. The horses that started, however, were good ones and all the races were closely contested. The meeting was favored both days by clear, sunny skies. Some 6,000 hunt-racing fans lined the course on the first day. and a capacity crowd of 11,000 turned out for Saturday's racing.

After the Show, up to the Club Room went exhibitors and officials for talk and entertainment that lasted several hours after the last class at 11 in the evening. On Friday night, Mrs. George P. Greenhalgh, her son George Jr., who had been doing the honors riding for Springsbury with Mrs. Billie Jacobs Wetherall, Mrs. John Hay Whitney, Ned King, Bob Leeds and others were talking over the events of the day. Others were Miss Margaret Cotter whose Rocksie rounded into form at the close of the Show to perform beautifully for his Washington owner, who made him from a rogue to one of the great open jumpers in the country; Mr. and Mrs. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Wise.

The Edward Quinns were along.

On Saturday evening May 27th and Sunday May 28th the Treweryn Beagles will hold their third annual Barn Dance. Puppy Show, and Field Day. The barn dance will be held in Mr. and Mrs. W. Standley Stokes' Mill, and it is rumored that the Treweryn "Tootses", along with some out of town talent from the Harford hunt country will stage a big floor show. Sunday morning the puppy show will be held at the kennels. Spectators will select winners. The Field Day will take place at Hawthorne Farm Stables in the afternoon and will feature everything from horse shoe pitching to an inter-pack relay race for the Philler Challenge Trophy. There will also be a horn blowing contest. The Treweryn Beagles say. "Come! and bring your friends. There'll be fun for all."

Prince of Wales progeny seem to have started off on a winning streak recently, six having turned in victories at the various tracks within six days of one another, beginning with H. E. Enger's Zoic who annexed the Plymouth Rock Handicap at Suffolk Downs on May 15. That same day it was H. O. Wilt's Lead Please, a 5-year-old mare bred here in Middleburg by Mrs. D. C. Sands, who scored at Charles Town, while two days later another of Mrs. Sands' Benton Farm breeding in Brookmeade's 3-year-old filly Personage chalked up her maidentriumph at Suffolk. On May 18, the juvenile filly Wale Signal bred by Kenneth Gilpin scored for Claude Feltner at Charles Town and the following day S. B. Berry's 3-year-old Princess Lady, also bred by Mrs. D. C. Sands, won at Charles Town and on May 20 H. M. Simpson's Prince Turley, bred by Hubert Phipps, continued the precedent at the same track by capturing one of the day's claiming events.

Flash: When the King and Queen embark for merrie England's shores again they will not be able to play Chinese Checkers as they'd planned. The Hon. Mrs. Reginald (Alice) Winn, who had wintered for a bit in Tryon, N. C., returned to England in March with the new American, made in China, game. The Royal pair were introduced to Alice's jumping marbles at Lord and Lady Astor's "Clivedon." The King and Queen were so enchanted with the pastime that they wanted a game for themselves. Mrs. Winn cabled George Cathey and his Blue Ridge Shop in Tryon to send post-haste one of his handmade boards to the Embassy in Washington. Sir Ronald Lindsay, Ambassador, returned same, with note explaining The King and Queen could not accept presents. Despite entreaties, Sir Ronald could not be won and Mrs. Winn's Chinese Checkers will not be played as Royalty recuperates from this country's roving and sail the seas for home and Buckingham. Flash: When the King and Queen Buckingham.

Vulture Gets Another

Sailor Beware

2 stakes—2 weeks

Comonhome at Rose Tree

—Morgan Photo.

At Left: Miss Patricia du Pont's KINGVULTURE journeyed to Atlantic City last week and stole the show. The son of DICK TURPIN won 5 out of 7 classes, getting second and third in the other two, sweeping aside good company and leaving in his wake HOLYSTONE, the Reserve. Center: Greentree's SAILOR BEWARE has just romped it at Belmont, winning as he pleases, and taking the International $2,000 Stake and The Appleton Memorial on consecutive Wednesdays. The injured Jockey Little is shown up here. At Right: Mrs. J. W. Y. Martin's COMONHOME won The Gloucester For Hunter's Plate at Rose Tree last Saturday. In accounting for this feature, with Mr. Sidney Watters, Jr., in his 6th Cup win this season, J. G. Leiper's FORSAKEN was second with Mr. Powers up. Above (at right) COMONHOME is shown winning the Western Penn. Hunt Cup, with Mr. Colwill up.

Deserter Breaks Whitney Run

One Round, 2 Straight

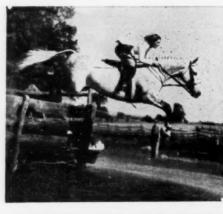

Springsbury's Sallyport

At Left: Louis Stoddard, Jr., has a good one in DESERTER. He is here shown losing by a nose at Middleburg last fall. DESERTER broke up the Whitney run of 5 straight wins at Belmont and returned 25-1 to his backers. Center: The Greentree Stable's ONE ROUND won two straight 'chases at Belmont during the past fortnight, when Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney's horses took five straight races and complete command of the week's card. At Right: SALLYPORT, a homebred, from the George P. Greenhalghs' Springs bury Farm took command of the green and suitable classes at Atlantic City; she was Virginia's outstanding representative.

Rokeby Going Again

Balding Jolly

Annibal Is Trained Rough

At Left: Miss Charlotte Noland's ROKEBY, Champion of Upperville Horse Show last year, with Miss June Hanes up, will go again this year, after a repeat effort in the "Oldest Horse Show in the United States". The date is June 9 and 10. Center: Master Bobby Balding, son of the noted horseman, trainer and poloist, J. B. "Barney" Balding, is a busy one these days as well. Here Bobby is shown with his pony JOLLY, out for a roll. Mr. Balding has charge of all of John Hay Whitney's polo ponies, also his steeplechasers. At Right: Thomas Hitchcock's ANNIBAL, the Champion 'Chaser of 1939, is trained like all the rest of the Hitchcock horses down in Aiken. Here he is shown in two pictures, during his winter training, when there is no rubbing or pampering. The son of CHUBASCO is rolling in a water-hole in the paddock, not fifteen minutes after he had worked a half-a-mile over six five foot fences. Merely turned out after works, Mr. Hitchcock's horses cool themselves out. ANNIBAL is shown standing in the line-up awaiting Mr. Hitchcock's arrival. At his head is a 14 year old colored boy who takes Mr. Rigan McKinney's place in the saddle, in ANNIBAL'S gallops.
